

Resolution

Of the Edmonds City Council

Declaring that the Intersection of 212th Street Southwest and 76th Avenue West be Again Officially Known as "Holmes Corner"

No: 1171

Whereas, Edmonds is a city of neighborhoods that are valued by all; and

Whereas, the neighborhood around the intersection of 212th Street Southwest and 76th Street West today includes long-standing residential homes, apartments, condos, small businesses and Edmonds-Woodway High School; and

Whereas, the neighborhood and high school were the location of one of the earliest pioneer homesteads, ranch, dairy, and logging business, owned by Edmonds pioneers Samuel and Ann Holmes; and

Whereas, for decades City maps identified this intersection and neighborhood as "Holmes Corner"; and

Whereas, in January 2007 the City placed signs at the intersection reading "Holmes Corner" in recognition of this important history and neighborhood.

Now, Therefore, Be It Resolved, that the Edmonds City Council declares that the intersection of 212th Street Southwest and 76th Avenue West, and the surrounding neighborhood, be again officially known as "Holmes Corner".

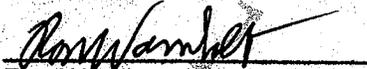

Passed, approved, and adopted this 22nd day of April 2008.
