SHOTS FIRED OVERNIGHT IN QUIET RESIDENTIAL NEIGHBORHOOD POLICE SEEKING INFORMATION FROM THE PUBLIC

Date of Incident: February 2, 2016

A quiet residential neighborhood in Edmonds was awoken in the early morning hours (2am) by the sound of gunfire. The first arriving patrol officers to the 17100 block of 67 AVE W, found several spent shell casings on the ground. An Edmonds K9 team was called in to see if anyone involved was still in the area on foot but no suspect(s) were located.

As the investigation unfolded, investigators were able to determine that a house and vehicle were struck by gunfire. That vehicle and anyone associated with it was gone when police had arrived. There was no evidence to suggest anyone had been hit by the gunfire.

Based on the information gathered so far from independent witnesses, this appears have been a violent altercation between known parties. There is no known, specific ongoing threat to the general public.

Investigators have had little cooperation from anyone believed to have been involved in the incident. However, we continue to follow up on solid leads regarding the identity of the involved persons.

Anyone with information about this is encouraged to call or send in tips via our website.
