ARCHITECTURAL DESIGN BOARD SEEKS MEMBER

(Edmonds - WA) The City of Edmonds is currently accepting applications for the layman position on the Architectural Design Board. Terms are for four years.

This is a volunteer position and requires the appointed board members to attend one evening meeting a month, on the first Wednesday and an occasional meeting on the third Wednesday at 7 p.m. in the Public Safety Complex. The Architectural Design Board serves as an advisory board to the City Council on proposed multiple-family and commercial developments including site, landscape, and building design.

The membership of said board shall be composed of one architect and/or building designer, one landscaper and/or landscape architect, one builder or developer, one educated or having practical experience in planning, one person trained or having practical experience in any of the aforementioned categories or any related design science and two lay persons. The appointed layman board member shall reside within city limits. Members shall be appointed by the Mayor with confirmation of City Council.

Application deadline is Friday, May 17, 2019 @ 4:30 pm.

To apply:
